PLACES TO VISIT IN GOA

Dudhsagar Falls:

Dudhsagar Falls (literally Sea of Milk) is a four-tiered waterfall located on the Mandovi River in the Indian state of Goa. Dudhsagar Falls is amongst India's tallest waterfalls with a height of 310 m (1017 feet) and an average width of 30 metres (100 feet).The falls is located in the Bhagwan Mahaveer Sanctuary and Mollem National Park among the Western Ghats.

Fort Aguada and its lighthouse:

Fort Aguada and its lighthouse is a well-preserved seventeenth-century Portuguese fort standing in Goa, on Sinquerim Beach, overlooking the Arabian Sea. The fort was constructed in 1612 to guard against the Dutch and the Marathas. It was a reference point for the vessels coming from Europe at that time.

Basilica of Bom Jesus :

The Basilica of Bom Jesus or Borea Jezuchi Bajilika (Portuguese: Basílica do Bom Jesus) is located in Goa, and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The basilica holds the mortal remains of St. Francis Xavier. The church is located in Old Goa, which was the capital of Goa in the early days of Portuguese rules.

Calangute beach:

Calangute beach is a town in North Goa, famous for its beach. The beach is the largest in North Goa and visited by thousands of domestic and international tourists alike. The beach offers water sport activities like parasailing and water skiing, among others.

Chapora Fort:

Chapora Fort, located in Bardez, Goa, rises high above the Chapora River. Before the Portuguese arrived in Goa in 1510, this location was the site of another fort. The fort changed hands several times after Portuguese acquired Bardez. Trying to end the Portuguese rule in Goa, Prince Akbar joined his father's enemies, the Marathas in 1683 and made this place his base camp.

Sé Catedral de Santa Catarina:

The Sé Catedral de Santa Catarina, known as Se Cathedral, is the cathedral of the Latin Rite Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Goa and Daman and the seat of the Patriarch of the East Indies. It is located in Old Goa, India. The Se Cathedral was built to commemorate the victory of the Portuguese under Afonso de Albuquerque over a Muslim army, leading to the capture of the city of Goa in 1510.

Goa State Museum:

Goa State Museum, also known as the State Archaeology Museum, Panaji, is a museum in Goa. Established in 1977, it contains departments including Ancient History and Archaeology, Art and Craft, and Geology. The museum, as of 2008, had about 8,000 artifacts on display, including stone sculptures, wooden objects, carvings, bronzes, paintings, manuscripts, rare coins, and anthropological objects.

Govt. of Goa, India.

Message from Hon. Chief Minister of Goa

I am happy to know that Vibrant Goa Global Expo and Summit is being organized in October 2019.

Goa has been on the forefront in terms of quality of life and in attracting the right kind of industries and businesses in tune with Goan environment and ethos. I am sure Vibrant Goa will boost this process and help generate employment to Goan Youth in line with their aspirations as we move forward. In particular I appreciate the road shows being organised in 15 countries to connect with large number of Goans as well as with businesses of those countries and in the 20 state capitals of India.

Wishing the Vibrant Goa Global Expo and Summit a resounding success.
