Rich Heritage Handloom

- Handloom is a traditional and timeless art form
- The handloom fabric represents diverse cultural and historical lineages. It also reflects customs, mythologies and the artist's emotions
- Each incomparable piece tells a unique story through plain fabrics, tribal motifs, geometric design and colourful dyes

Objectives

- Promote khadi and handloom products to the audience across the world by redefining tradition and style
- Aid digital transformation of MSMEs to enable their entry into the global export market
- Connect buyers directly with Artisans, Weavers, Designers, Government Organisations, Merchant Exporters and NGOs
- Increase awareness regarding weaves and other traditional art forms and techniques
- Foster and nurture opportunities for global business collaboration
- Support "Vocal for Local" for transforming "Gram (Local) to Global"
